MOS – MindOnSite selected "2014 Top 20 Learning Portal Companies"

TrainingIndustry.com just announced the 2014 "Top 20 Learning Portal Companies List".
MOS – MindOnSite is very proud to have been selected this year again!

Selection to this year's Top 20 Learning Portal Companies List was based on the following criteria:
- Breadth of functionality and capabilities
- Commitment to the corporate training market
- Industry visibility, innovation and impact
- Number and strength of clients
- Geographic reach

MOS – MindOnSite was also selected "Top 20 Learning Portal Companies" in 2010, 2012 and 2013.

"Our 2014 Top 20 Learning Portal Companies List showcases the continued innovation in the corporate learning marketplace," said Ken Taylor, Training Industry Inc.'s Chief Operating Officer. "These companies demonstrate the breadth of services, tools and reporting, learning leaders need to support any learning program. In particular, the ease of customization to the client's specific needs was a standout this year."

"The Top 20 companies provide technology and services that have a lasting impact on corporate learning," said Doug Harward, Training Industry Inc.'s Chief Executive Officer. "Their ability to personalize the learning environment to both the needs of the learner and the goals of the business give us confidence in the business impact of the programs they support."
